How can we be an intergenerational church?

Tuesday 10th October, 10:00-4:00, Online@home

What does it mean to be intergenerational church community? How could it happen in my setting? What difference could it make to my congregation? Is it all-age worship repackaged? This event will help you to think intentionally about being a church of different generations. Reflecting on both theory and practice - see intergenerational ministry in action!

Find out more and register for this free event at www.methodist.org.uk/alltogethernow With contributions from Martyn Payne, Gareth Crispen and Eleanor Bird amongst many others.

The Meaningful Treat Box - A Real Halloween Treat

The Meaningful Treat Pack is a new resource designed to help with mission work on, and leading up to, the eve of All Saints (Halloween). It is suitable for Light Parties, outreach events, schools or for children who call to trick or treat on 31st October. Inside each pack there is a bag of Fairtrade chocolate buttons and a Challenge Activity Poster. The poster has eight challenges including a quiz, maze, word game, a call to buy Fairtrade, a prayer suggestion, a national competition with a prize, and a challenge to treat someone less well off by donating to a children's charity.

Produced by The Meaningful Chocolate Company, each box costs £30 (there are 30 packs per box - £1 per pack). Each box also includes an ideas sheet for leaders. There is free delivery if ordered by September 30th. Visit www.realhalloween.org David Marshall, from Meaningful Chocolate, explains; "Quite often people feel that there has to be more to Halloween than dressing kids up as serial killers or monsters. The Meaningful Treat box is a way for adults to challenge kids to look at the good in the world, to do a bit of good by giving to a charity and to enjoy some great Fairtrade chocolate. It's a chance for 5-11 year olds to shine this Halloween."

This is a new venture and fits with the Pumpkin Heroes materials being produced by World Vision & Scripture Union.

10-12 November—Birmingham

Tickets £99 for one person, £79 for two or more.

An opportunity for youth leaders, youth workers, church leaders and other practitioners to hear new ideas, receive inspiration, worship, pray, network and get creative. It's completely different to any event that's gone before, and it's jam-packed with content that will be relevant for anyone who loves God and cares about teenagers.

Mission is... on the cards!

A new resource from Church Mission Society designed to get young people thinking about mission.

The aim of the game is to create sentences saying what mission is. You can then link to wider resources from CMS.

Go to the website where you can order a free pack— just like I did and I'm looking forward to playing with some teenagers soon...
